

Special Consent for Telephone Consultation

I understand Dr. Scott R. Miller is licensed in the state of California and is not licensed to practice medicine in any other state. The telephone consultation is not a prescribed treatment but rather a discussion of various conditions and related procedures and is educational by nature. Any tentative ideas need to be confirmed by an in person consultation with an appropriate examination and do not constitute medical treatment.

Patient signature

date